

Exhibition Grading : Syracuse Town Meeting
Name: _____

Outcomes	Analyze Causes and Effects	Look at Different Perspectives	Use of Evidence and Specific Examples	Presentation	Written Work
	*Concludes what the causes were for the event or situation *Figures out many different effects of the situation *Explores a variety of cause/effect relationships	*Does not accept one version of the story; examine different views. *Steps into other shoes and takes on that view	*Supports conclusions and ideals with specific accurate information. *Separates significant from trivial information *Evaluate strengths and weaknesses of evidence *cite appropriate sources
Essential Questions	HOW AND WHY DID THIS HAPPEN?	WHAT ARE THE DIFFERENT WAYS OF SEEING THIS?	HOW DO YOU KNOW THIS IS TRUE?
Excellent	Looks seriously at the “whys”, explains their thinking clearly.	Looks at many different aspects of a particular person’s perspective and possible effects.	Work is convincing because it has concrete and specific information or examples.	Clear, interesting well-organized and interesting	Answered all questions in detail and well constructed paragraphs.
	14 15	14 15	14 15	10	10
Competent	Explains information and looks at causes and effects	Looks from a particular person’s perspective	Work is credible and has relevant	Clear and organized	Answered all questions and well constructed paragraphs
	12 13	12 13	12 13	9	9
Minimum	Explains information but does not look at many effects	Looks at superficial aspects of different perspectives	Work includes some relevant evidence but lacks being convincing	Mostly clear	Answered all questions in sentences
	9 10 11	9 10 11	9 10 11	8	8
Incomplete	Does not explain Information	Does not look at different perspectives	Work contains little specific evidence	Unclear and not organized	Does not answer questions completely
	5 6 7 8	5 6 7 8	5 6 7 8	5	5

Comments: